Petersbourg, Auguſt 18.

SOME Days ago this Court received an Account from their Conſul at Raſh in Perſia, that Schach Nadyr had gained a great Victory over the Grand Mogul, in the Province of Caboul, and that afterwards the Grand Mogul was come into his Camp, on certain Conditions not yet known, where he deliver'd his Crown to the Sophy, who generouſly return'd it to him. As the Ruſſian Miniſter at Iſpahan has not mention'd this great Event, every body doubts of the Truth of it, though the ſaid Ruſſian Conſul has ſent, in the Perſian Language, a printed Relation thereof. The Ruſſian Fleet commanded by Rear Admiral O Brion, conſiſting of ſeven Men of War, is ſailed from Crownſtadt in order to exerciſe the Seamen. This Week Prince Dolgorucky, who was formerly named to go to England, was ſent back into Baniſhment. The 17th being the Prince of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttle's Birth-day, there was a great Number of Perſons of Diſtinction at Peterhoff, to make their Compliments to his Highneſs.

Vienna, Sept. 8. This Day an Eſtafette from Prince Lobkowitz brought Letters from a German Colonel in the Ruſſian Army, with Advice of the Surrender of Choczim: He ſays Count Munich had attacked the Turkiſh Army near that Town, and with the Loſs of 60 Men only, had killed ſome Hundreds of the Enemy, and put the reſt to Flight; whereupon he ſummon'd the Town, which ſurrendred at Diſcretion. In the Battle he took 19 Pieces of Cannon.

Vienna, Sept. 9. Our laſt Advices from Belgrade are of the 29th of Auguſt. On the 26th in the Evening a Number of Peaſants were employed to make a Line before the Redoubt on the further Side of the Iſland in the Danube; which Redoubt very much incommodes the Turks, who thereupon made a very great Fire, during the Time the Line was throwing up, with their Artillery and Muskets, which was anſwered on our Part with equal Vigour. The ſame Night 3000 Men, detach'd from our Army near Semlin, paſſed over in Boats to the ſaid Iſland, and more are order'd to be in Readineſs to be ſent over, to oblige the Enemy to withdraw the Troops they have on that Side. Our Men have likewiſe been ſupplied with ſome Cannon and Gabions; and they have begun to intrench themſelves, in order to preſerve the Communication between Belgrade and that Dedoubt. It appears that the Enemy think the taking that Redoubt would be of great Advantage to them, for they carry on their Attacks with great Diligence, and continue to cannonade and bombard it without the leaſt Remiſſion, by which ſeveral of our Men have been killed or wounded, among them a Captain of the Regiment of Heiſter wounded, and a Major of Engineers killed. On the 28th, early in the Morning, the whole Body of Turks on the other Side of the Danube, moved out of their Camp, and ſeemed determined to advance towards our Detachment in the Iſland, but after a little Time they withdrew, whether becauſe they found our Men poſted in a proper Manner to give them a warm Reception, or that they
